Profile

I am a passionate and affectionate man coming into his prime and looking to find a soul mate to share my life with. I can be very romantic, not afraid to show my affection publicly. I'm quite old fashioned in terms of my values, I like to make a lady feel special and appreciated, whether it's small gestures like writing poems or sending flowers. I have a sharp sense of humour, I'm not politically correct. I'm on a weight loss journey that has seen me lose five and a half stone and I'm going to keep going until I reach my long term goals. I'm honest and open but also discrete and trustworthy and I'm looking for a woman with similar values.

Relationship Record

- 2001 - Charlotte
2002 First sexual relationship. Long distance girlfriend. Relationship lasted 10 months but the distance made it difficult to maintain
- 2002 - Mandy
2023 Together from the age of 19 to 40 and we still get along as friends. Had a very loving relationship with romantic gestures such as sending flowers to her work (she's a primary school teacher), hiding multiple gifts with clues attached around the house for Valentine's day, organising a secret surprise 40th birthday party for her with over 100 guests at the same venue as our wedding reception, including the same wedding singer.
- Taking her on a once in a lifetime trip to New York and Niagara falls flying first class and staying in a five star hotel. Moving her sister and three children in with us when they had nowhere to go and sending them both on a trip to New York together whilst I looked after my nephew and nieces.*
- Sadly we drifted apart after a miscarriage that we dealt with in different ways but we remain on good terms. I'm excited about starting a new relationship with someone kind, feminine and demure that wants to be swept off their feet by a real gentleman and make new happy memories together.*
